

CITY ABANDONS WATER FIGHT

COUNCIL DEFEATS SUIT MOTION 3 TO 2

The government of Mayor Charles C. Smith who for 10 years has sought ownership of Cameron's public utilities, abandoned all efforts to purchase the property of the Community Public Service Company in Cameron Tuesday night when a motion to proceed with litigation was defeated by a vote of 3 to 2.

The Council had exhausted all efforts to persuade the water company to sell its plant and following a recent valuation by engineers the city had made an offer slightly in excess of $171,000. This offer having been refused the city was faced with the option of entering suit to enforce a clause in the franchise which the Council interpreted as giving the city the right to purchase it anytime it elected or abandon all plans to buy the plant.

The Council was without adequate assurance of victory in case it resorted to the courts and did not feel at liberty to venture forth upon an expedition through the courts that might involve a large sum in attorney's fees and costs. Twice during the past two years the Council has submitted to the people an issue of bonds which were used to impress the water company of the city's intention to buy its plant but at no time during this period did the city reach an agreement with the water company on a price for its properties. The entire program ended in failure because the property of the water company is not for sale and cannot be purchased within the price range involved in the bond issues.

When the water company served notice on the city that it would not sell and would resist in the courts (Turn to page 10)

This from the Wall Street Journal:

Transfer of electric utilities to municipalities in the State of Tennessee has raised a problem in the state's finances in the matter of revenue from taxation of those utilities while in private hands. As a result, the governor of Tennessee is sponsoring a bill providing for three per cent tax on the revenues collected by these municipalities from service. The tax would apply only to municipalities buying out private distributing systems, and would not apply to those which purchase power from private companies or which generate their own power. The governor estimates that recent transactions of this kind will result in a loss of $1,000,000 annually in state taxes, which he proposes to make good in this way. TVA pays a five per cent tax to Tennessee on all power generated in the state.

The electric utility industry is one of the heaviest taxpayers in the United States. It pays altogether about 16 per cent of its gross revenues, as against about one-half of this percentage paid by railroads. Its tax bill amounts to about $330,000,000 annually which is substantially the same as the railroad tax bill, with railroad revenues twice the electric industry's revenues. It is interesting to note that its taxes are equivalent to about 40 per cent of its revenues for domestic consumers—which gives point to the reminder from the New York Public Service Commission that we cannot go on loading tax bills and cutting rates for service.

An interesting experience with taxation is that of Crisp County, Ga., which some eight years ago undertook to construct a hydro-electric plant and distributing system for the city of Cordele, formerly served by the Georgia Power Co. The plant cost more than originally expected and for the six years ended December 31, 1936, was operated at a net loss after interest aggregating about $300,000. In 1937 it showed a profit of about $2,000. To cover these losses Crisp County levied a special property tax which at one time was as high as 16 mills and has now been reduced to 6 mills. A year ago the Georgia Power Commission contracted to purchase a considerable amount of firm power from the County plant which will now probably put the operations of the plant permanently "in the black."

It would be an interesting mathematical problem to determine the net result to the County from its power enterprise to date, taking into account the rate changes and the tax payments—together with a comparison of the present rates for service in Crisp County and those in comparable communities receiving from the private company.

Fires 32 Shots Now Faces Felony Charge

Fred Greenhill is in the Milam county jail facing a charge of assault with intent to murder his father in law, W. L. Willingham.

Greenhill, said by witnesses to the shooting, grabbed a 32 calibre rifle and fired thirty times at his father in law who ran from the house to escape the barrage. Officers here said that the shooting appeared to be an all time high for poor marksmanship. Willingham was struck only one time by a bullet.

According to officers who placed Greenhill under arrest at the home, he is said to have returned to his quarters Thursday night in a state of intoxication and having overheard his father in law talking about him, became angry and began shooting. Greenhill in a statement to officers said when Willingham ran from the house he believed he was going to the home of a neighbor to get a gun. Willingham was taken to a hospital in Marlin while Greenhill was brought to Cameron and is now in the county jail.

Against the fascinating, ultra-modern background of the Exposition, "Artists and Models Abroad" traces Benny's madcap romance with (Turn to page 10)

Livestock owners from Milam, Brazos, Burleson and Robertson counties attended the meeting, held in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce. Frank Seale of Benchley in Robertson county was elected president and Homer Nabours, county clerk of Milam county, was elected treasurer. L. S. Cunningham of Gause, Marvin Porter of Caldwell and Mit Danby of Bryan make up the executive committee. The association voted to meet twice yearly, in February and August.

Mr. Nabours said the association planned to apply for a charter in Texas as a non-profit organization. He said that 75 cattle men were present and that within a short time the association is expected to have a membership of 200.

During recent months cattle thieves have taken a heavy toll in these counties and livestock owners are said to be considering measures to bring an end to these thefts. The commissioners court of each county has been asked to co-operate in this work.

Mrs. P. H. McKinney, 89, of Jones Prairie and mother of Mrs. J. D. Baskin of Cameron died at 4:20 p. m. Tuesday at the family residence.

The death of Mrs. McKinney removes from the walks of life one of the few remaining pioneer mothers who have witnessed four decades or more of history in the Lone Star State. On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in historic Little River Baptist church, neighbors and friends of a lifetime, gathered to pay tribute to her memory and heard Rev. Vernon G. Miles, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hillsboro and recently pastor of the First Baptist church in Cameron, eulogize her life and that of her family in the Jones Prairie community.

Mrs. McKinney was the last of the charter members of Little River Baptist church which was organized in 1849, one of the oldest Baptist congregations in the history of Texas. Rotary Club Hears Rev. Maurice Grove Discuss Fellowship

The meaning of fellowship translated into better relations among men and what it will do for a community, a state, and a nation was discussed by Rev. Maurice Grove, pastor of the First Christian church in an address to the Cameron Rotary Club Wednesday noon.

Rev. Grove said that fellowship not only means better relationships among neighbors in Cameron but leads to a changed attitude toward other peoples and other countries. The fellowship exemplified by Rotary would lead nations to abandon war and bind all peoples closer to (Turn to page 6)

GEO. LOCK, 71 YEARS OLD DIES FROM GUN SHOT

George Lock, 71 year old pioneer resident of Yarrington, died instantly at 4:15 p. m. Tuesday from a gun shot wound in the right side of his head.

The body of the aged man was found lying across a bed in a room occupied by him in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Hopper, by members of the family who were attracted by the report of the gun.

Oletta Hopper, 14, grand daughter of Lock, was slightly injured a few moments before Lock is said to have taken his own life, when a shot gun was discharged, the flame setting fire to a sweater worn by the girl.

According to witnesses Mrs. Hopper and the girl were attempting to take the gun away from Mr. Lock when it was discharged.

Early in the afternoon of Tuesday Mrs. Hopper and her father came to Cameron. They returned to their home in Yarrington shortly before 4 o'clock. Mrs. Hopper told friends that her father said he was going to kill himself as they got out of the car and went into their home. Oletta who attends school in Yarrington had returned to the home. When Mr. Lock reached for his shot gun, Mrs. Hopper and the grand daughter of the deceased attempted to take the gun from him. At this moment the gun was discharged with the resulting injuries to the girl. Mrs. Hopper was not injured and as she turned her attention to her daughter, sending for help from a nearby neighbor, Mr. Lock is said to have entered his room, where he picked up another shell placing it in the gun and turning the weapon upon himself.

Oletta Hopper was taken immediately to the Cameron hospital for treatment. She returned to her home Wednesday morning.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Baptist church at Yarrington with Rev. O. C. Acree, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Cameron conducting the services. The body of the late pioneer was taken to the Methodist cemetery at Marak where the Masonic Lodge of Yarrington observed burial ritual for its late member.

Mr. Lock had been a resident of the Yarrington community for many years. It was said here Wednesday that worry over the welfare of his children had overtaken the aged man and this was assigned as probable cause for his act. He is survived by eight children as follows:

Lee Lock of Ben Arnold, William Lock of Meeks, Curtis and Walter Lock of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Pearl Hopper and Mrs. Charlie Russell of Yarrington, Mrs. Roy Johnson of South Elm, and Mrs. Haley Richardson of Roseland. Also surviving are a number of grand children and two sisters, Mrs. Alice Rhodes of Abilene and Mrs. Maggie McElwraith of Cameron.

His Life Story

The Dallas News

Remember the Aged.

Among the letters received from people of every walk of life and degree were many from those who had thought through many of the most serious problems of government. In urging me to make the race for Governor, many of these people called attention to the great issues as they saw them. Because I had long had the interest of old people at heart, many sensed that if I became a candidate, I would insist on justice being done the old people. Among these very thoughtful letters were the following:

"I have heard you many times over the radio and have learned to admire you. I do not know whether you are a statesman or a son of a statesman, but from your utterances I know you are a humanitarian. And if you are a humanitarian, that goes a long way in working out problems in human society.

"Now, I can assure you myself that I will do a great deal of work for the candidacy of any man who will declare for the Old-Age Pension as I have outlined my views here. And the people, especially the old people and the young people who are friendly to their cause, will go down the line with some candidate who advocates a sales tax. We want to support you, but we are looking for a man who will come to our views on this question.

"I am old enough to receive the pension myself, but I do not need it and will not be an applicant for it. I am working for old people who do need it and we will have it—if we have to center on some man who is not in the race at this time. This issue cannot be sidestepped as it has been heretofore."—V. A. Collins, Livingston.

Urges Pension for Old People.

L. M. Phillips of Kerens wrote in to say: "If you are elected Governor I hope you will give all of the old people a pension. Me and my wife got the pension for a while, but they took us off because I owned a little farm and said I had children that could help us. If you are elected I hope you won't look at it that way and will give us a pension. Mr. Lee O'Daniel, I hope you will give me and my wife this pension, because we sure do need it. I am 81 years old and have worked hard all my life. If you are elected, I hope you will do away with these men who are riding around investigating the old people and having them taken off the pension roll."

The letters continued to pour in.

Walked Mile to Mail Box.

"I have to walk a mile to the mail box and that far back home to mail this card to tell you that my husband and I are very much in favor of your running for Governor of Texas."—Mrs. Lewis Kiser, Garner.

"My husband is captain of a ship that leaves me with my time pretty much my own, and I have a brand-new car to use. Now can I help if and when you announce for Governor? I shall be more than happy to use my time and influence in your behalf."—Mrs. A. Nilsen, Seabrook.

"Above all, it is the hope that you will drive the money changers away from the Capitol steps, drive away the few who have been selfishly hoarding for themselves in handling our public funds. It is the hope that you will look on the human rights side more than on the property rights side. But watch that you do not let your sympathy get the best of your judgment."—R. E. Buckalew, Dallas. Keep Smiling.

"Keep smiling, and keep sweet. A revolution is on in Texas and the people want a man for Governor who will not be under the influence of politicians and is willing to boost and work for Texas."—B. D. Sartain, Wichita Falls.

"You are just the kind of a man Texas needs for Governor. But if it takes your programs off the air, please do not run. Your programs are the best on the air, especially your sacred ones."—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Fortenberry, Corpus Christi.

"Mr. O'Daniel, you are a man that is known far and near. I am a grocer's son and have not found a single person as yet who thinks you would be a bad Governor. Although some few I have asked remarked you were mixing politics with religion. I believe you are doing the right thing. I am only 16 years of age, but I realize that our governmental plant needs rebuilding. I believe you can do the carpentering work. Please send me some of your addresses. I entered debate in Wheeler county and won first place. I then went to the district and placed second. Although not boasting, I believe I can memorize an address and give it before the public at a candidates' meeting."—Grady Anglin, Wheeler. Wants to Vote Right.

"I've reached the age of 21 and I get a vote this year and I want to start out right by voting for a good man for Governor."—Carrell Westfall, Floydada.

"My wife has never voted, but she says that if you run for Governor she is going to vote this time. Hoping to see your hat in the ring soon."—O. D. Bland, Stanton.

"My wife and I think you would make the Governor we need at this time. We have always voted for Ferguson and since they are not in this race, there is no one we'd rather have than you. We appreciate your being a Christian. More people are sick of politicians. We hope you decide to run."—C. S. Phillips, Dallas.

"I am for you for Governor. I am 75 years of age and before I die I would like to vote for a man who was not a politician."—B. F. Ulsey, Keechi.

Many of the letters came from residents of other States, particularly Oklahoma.

Favored in Oklahoma.

"Have just heard your radio talk and want to say that Oklahoma would vote 90 per cent for you for Governor, if we had a chance. Most of us in this neck of the woods are originally from your State, the grandest and best, and if we could vote for you, you'd carry by even a greater majority than you will in July. If you make the race, we know you will carry by a greater majority than anyone has before."—Bryan B. Burns, Snyder, Okla.

I think the people of Texas are right in their opinion that you ought to be a candidate for Governor. If I were a Texan you would get my vote."—Mrs. Helen Van Nog, Brinkman, Okla.

"If you should be the next Governor of Texas—and I believe you will if you run—then I pray the Lord will hold you in the hollow of His hand and guide you so that your life will be a blessing to many more than you are now serving.

"If you had been born twins, then it would be nice for one of you to be Governor of Texas and the other to continue broadcasting on the air; and in case you had been born triplets, then the third one could come up here and be Governor of Oklahoma."—Mrs. Paul Reasor, Duncan, Oklahoma.

Tipping Off the Debtors.

No man in his right sense could fail to be mightily impressed by the wishes of the people which this mounting post-card campaign disclosed. But as I have said, I insisted on being unmistakably sure that the people wanted me to announce before I was willing to do so.

At this point I did an unheard of thing. I turned to the boys and girls of Texas, none of whom could vote for years, to ask their advice. And here is why I did that:

You boys and girls can't vote; so the politicians don't ask your opinion on who you want for Governor. But I am asking you to try and tell me your views. I have already received some mighty nice letters from school-boys and girls—some of them petitions by the whole class and even by the whole school, in some instances, including the teachers, but I want to know what more of you think.

You may be wondering why I do this since, under our laws, you are not allowed or expected to cast your votes. But I want you boys and girls to ask your mothers and dads about what the State of Texas owes and when it must be paid. You will learn from them that our state, like our nation is considerably in debt. You will learn that the bonds and notes of indebtedness will fall due when many of you are grown men and women. That means we older folks are borrowing lots of money which you school boys and girls will have to pay back, and so that is the reason I want to ask you now to give a little thought as to who you would like to have for Governor.

Paying for Dead Horses.

Of course, you boys and girls do not know that I can correct that issue, but you know that I am your friend. You must give me credit with being the first and only person contemplating running for office who tipped you off as to what's going on in this respect. Ask your dad or mother what the old saying means, Paying for dead horses. You may discover when you are grown that the automobile age was that in which all the horses died. Yet you must pay for the horses.

Now, for all you folks young and old who have been writing me. I am amazed at the response. While I deeply appreciate the confidence you are showing in me, yet honestly, friends, and from the depths of my heart I do not see at this time how I or any other plain citizen from the ranks could hope to compete with the brainy politicians who are backed by millions of dollars and who know from experience how to put their men in office. I say this because I have been rubbing shoulders with stern realities most of my life and have seen something of the working of politics. In other words, I am wondering if we really do have government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

Tired of Politics.

Most of your letters state that you are tired of politics and politicians and that the time has come for the people to put a plain, ordinary businessman in the Governor's chair. I desire to explore further along that line; so those of you who have not written me, please do so right away. Remember this: I am not announcing my candidacy for Governor now. As I told you on the Sunday broadcast, I have a satisfactory job and am not trying to force myself on you. But if enough cards and letters with names on them are sent to me to prove conclusively that there is a real demand for my services, humble as they may be, I shall enter the race proudly and fight it out as only an Irishman can.

Us poor folks have been kidded so much that we are getting used to it. And the thing has gone so far that it is doubtful in my mind as to whether the poor folks in Texas, who constitute by far the great majority, can put their man into the Governor's chair. I am not bragging, but I have been around quite a bit since my hog-slopping days. I have rubbed elbows with some mighty big men. I have sat at some mighty fine banquet tables where the folks wore made-to-order clothes. My own duds were not threadbare. I have sat next to the toastmaster, and I have done a little toastmastering myself.

How Politicians Work.

I have never seen many of these men with bank accounts that I didn't like. I am not running them down. I am not fighting them. They are fine fellows, and many of them are very brainy. But what I am trying to say is that they know what it takes to get what they want, and they have it. And when they put up a candidate for Governor, they don't figure on doing the job just halfway. They will go all the way, even if they have to steal the poor candidate's pants the night before election so he can't make his climaxing speech.

And while we have a thousand times more names already than most any real politician would be tickled to death to get, yet I don't want you folks out yonder who really want me to run to feel too sure that I can be elected. Lots of folks have phoned me, but that doesn't count. We can't pile up the phone calls in this pile of letters and cards. Nor can we pile up your good intentions. Therefore, all of you who are for me go get a post card and sign your name on it and send it in. Let's make this a post-card campaign. We have some post cards with as high as twenty-six names on them. But I want enough cards and letters and petitions to scare some of the money backers of the candidates already in the field so that they will know they have their money on a three-legged race horse. I am not looking for a job, but as I promised you, if the citizens of this state really want me in the race, just let me know; and if I run, I will sure run to win.

Rev. Grove.

Dr. E. R. Zellner, dentist, introduced Rev. Grove and spoke of him as the "biggest little preacher in Milam county," and told the club members they should know more about him.

Rev. Grove defined fellowship as meaning a number of the higher relations so necessary to a better community life. Comradship, companiship and friendship are all possible when men get together in a common bond of fellowship. "After you know all about a man and he knows all about you and still you can call each other friends, is to my way of thinking one of the biggest and best things in life." In Bible times leaders found fellowship to be indispensable in overcoming the obstacles that confronted them, he said.

Among visiting Rotarians for the day was Rev. Vernon G. Miles, former pastor of the Baptist church here and now pastor of the First Baptist church of Hillsboro.

NEW, SMALLER, LOWER-PRICED TRACTOR For the Smaller-Acreage Farm

A brand-new type of tractor for the small farm field is now on display at The Cameron Machine Shop. It is a smaller, lower-priced tractor designed for the smaller farms. "It will completely change the farming picture for the farmer who has felt that he could farm cheaper with horses," says W. J. Michalka.

For many years, farmers with large acreages have been in position to farm with tractors and power machinery because they could utilize the greater power built into the heavier tractors to profitable advantage. Not until recently, however, could the farmer with small acreage have the same advantage—there was no tractor of the right size to do his work economically—he had to be content with horses or mules for power, and, as a result, he could not take full advantage of modern, labor and time-saving farm equipment.

Now, with the introduction of this new tractor—the John Deere Model "H"—the small farmer can have all of the advantages of power farming. This new, smaller tractor is not only lower in price—a tractor within the reach of the farmer who heretofore has used two or three horses—but it is a tractor that has the utility of the larger general purpose row-crop tractors. It will pull a 16-inch plow under most conditions, and a two-bottom, 12-inch plow under favorable conditions. Because of its tri-cycle design, this smaller tractor has the distinctive advantage of cultivating two rows at a time instead of one. The rear wheels are adjustable from 44 to 80 inches so that, regardless of the crop, the wheels can be set in or out to fit exactly the various row widths.

A line of integral and drawn equipment, specially designed for this smaller tractor, also lower in price, is available. However, many of the present horse-drawn machines on the average farm can be readily adapted, which reduces materially the investment in equipment.

This new John Deere tractor provides power at the drawbar and operates belt machines of all kinds. A power take-off is also available to operate certain types of drawn machines.

While this new tractor is sure to interest farmers with smaller acreages now using animal power, it also meets the needs on large farms as auxiliary power—to help out at cultivating time and to do many of the lighter jobs for which a team of horses has been kept. It will handle these jobs with real economy.

The Cameron Machine Shop local John Deere dealer, invites anyone interested in modern farm equipment to drop in and see this latest addition to the big line of John Deere Two-Cylinder Tractors.

dent held a short business session. At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Tyrone Kelly led the program with a discussion of Bizet's opera, "Carmen." Miss Christine Miller and Mrs. W. G. Harsha contributed to the program with vocal selections and Mrs. Francis Cox with piano selections. After the program, a plate of cherry pie and coffee were served by the hostess.

On Saturday afternoon, February 25, Mrs. Homer Plentl entertained her three year old son, Wallace, with a birthday party given at their home here. Wallace was three years old on Sunday. The home was beautifully decorated in white and green, the color scheme being that of St. Patrick's Day. A lovely green iced angel food cake built in tiers, and on top of which were three white candles in green holders, centered the attractively laid table. After a series of games enjoyed by the youngsters, they were served green iced, heartshaped cookies and lemonade with vegetable coloring added to make it green. Plate favors and souvenirs were colored balloons and tiny card board green hats filled with candy. Wallace received a number of nice gifts. Those present were Mrs. Alvin Roberts and two children, Lynn and Harrell and Mrs. Cyrus Miller and daughter, Renee of Temple.

Members of Sarah McCalla Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, went to Independence today to place a bronze marker in the cemetery for Captain Richard Tice, a soldier of the American Revolution, and ancestor of D. K. Hall and Mesdames Donaldson and Scarborough of Ad Hall and also other Milam county citizens some of whom attended the ceremony.

A group of Milam county citizens attended the unveiling of the statue of George Childress, author of the Declaration of Independence of Texas, at Old Washington, the original capital of the state, on Thursday, March 2. Governor O'Daniel is to be the main speaker of the occasion.

This unveiling is of particular interest to citizens of Milam county as George C. Childress together with his uncle, Spearlin C. Roberts, represented Milam county at the time the Declaration of Independence was drawn. Both Mr. Roberts and Mr. Childress lived at Old Nashville, the first county seat of Milam county. Old Nashville was dedicated last year as a park.

A school of instruction will be held Saturday, March 4, at Masonic Hall for the Eastern Star. Mrs. Mildred Harris of Waco State Grand Matron and other Grand Lodge officers will attend the school. Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m. 11 Lodges will send delegates. At noon a luncheon will be served in the dining room of Mrs. Cato's Cafe. Mrs. W. G. Harsha, Matron of Cameron Chapter, has announced an interesting program. Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp will deliver the address of welcome and Mrs. Gladys Watson will direct the music. Mrs. Watson will also be hostess to Mrs. Harris while the Grand Matron is in Cameron. The Rockdale Chapter will open the meeting at 9:30 a. m. and will be assisted by Cameron and other chapters during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Johnson, who for 50 years have been residents of Cameron, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 26, at their home here when their children, grand children and a few close friends were present for a turkey dinner with all the accompaniments. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were married on February 28, 1889, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carpenter of Belton, with Rev. R. M. Shelton, who was at that time pastor of the First Methodist church of Belton performing the ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were reared at Belton. The anniversary celebration was really a two day affair as their children who live out of town arrived on Saturday to spend the week end. Mr. Johnson before coming to Cameron, worked in the jewelry business of Julius Tobler of Belton where he learned the work. He came to Cameron in December 1887 where he has been engaged in the jewelry business since that time. Dinner guests on Sunday were their children: Sam McDermott, his daughter Wis and sons, Sam, Jr., Make and Roy of Cameron; Mrs. McDermott daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson was unable to be present for the dinner; Mrs. Charles E. Lamb and children Charles, Jr., Luther, Rebecca, Martha and Mary Ruth of Dallas; Curtis L. Johnson and two sons, Curtis, Jr., and Robert of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Johnson and two boys Louis, Jr., and Bobbie of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Rube M. Johnson and children, Rube, Jr., Rose Marie, Barbara Jo, John and Clara Louise; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson and daughter, Catherine Marie of San Angelo. George Hefley of Houston who is as intimately connected with the family as if he were their own son, was also present for the occasion. A daughter, Mrs. Roland Merrill of Brookhaven, Miss., was not present. Surprise guests for the dinner were long time friends of Mr. Johnson, Dr. Eduard Rischer and J. M. Ralston. Mrs. R. H. Johnson and Mrs. Winnie Wittliff were also dinner guests. Many friends called during the day to wish the Johnsons many happy returns and best wishes. They received many lovely gifts, beautiful flowers and messages of congratulations. Their son, Rube Johnson presented his mother with a beautiful bride's book which he made himself. The exterior is covered with white kid and across the top bears the inscription of time and place 50 years ago and in similar lettering the time and place of the present is given at the bottom of the cover in gold. In the center is a plain gold ring inside of which is written Golden Anniversary. On each side of this ring are the initials of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. The inside cover is lined in red silk and the pages are white. All the decorations of the dinner and the occasion were in gold and white.

Mrs. Emma Dobbs, aged resident of this community, has been ill following a fall last week when she received severe injuries.

Preaching services will be held at the Yarrington Baptist church on Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night. The pastor, Rev. Joseph Underwood, will speak at all three services. The subject for the Sunday morning sermon will be "Is Religion Excess Baggage?" At one of the other services, Rev. Underwood will speak on "Is there and Value in being Alone with God?"

With The CAMERON ROTARIANS

Word has been received that Rotary International Secretariat, Chas. M. Dyer, with the general Office, of Chicago, Ill., will honor the Cameron Rotary Club by his presence with us, Friday, March 10th. It is our opinion that our District Governor, Francis B. Dunn, of Port Arthur, will also be present.

The specific work of Charles M. Dyer, is to be of every possible service to the smaller Rotary Clubs in the United States and Canada. At last week's Luncheon, it was voted that our regular luncheon of the week of March 8th, be held on Friday noon, March 10th, instead of Wednesday, in order that all members might have the opportunity to be present to meet and hear Charles M. Dyer, every member should make plans to be present on this date, FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1939.

PROGRAM FOR WEDNESDAY

ADDRESS BY

REV. MAURICE GROVE
Pastor First Christian Church.

It was indeed a pleasure to have President C. G. Swift and Stanley Swift back with us again, Wednesday, who have just returned for a visit to New York. Dr. Swift, reported he had visited the Rotary Club of New York, this club having a membership of about three hundred, and on this particular meeting there were approximately two hundred visiting guests present.

Let us all take our hats off to Vice President J. B. White, who carried on so wonderfully during the absence of Dr. Swift, the manner in which he and his staff worked in perfect unison.

Niley Smith made up for the luncheon of February 15th, in Brownsville, that's the spirit Niley, where there's a will there's a way.

In last week's issue you should have noticed that members absent were listed under a new heading, "ROLL-CALL OF THE TAIL-ENDERS." We think that is a very good heading for the absentees, and are going to continue to use it, credit goes to P. W.

Those on the "ROLL-CALL OF THE TAIL-ENDERS" for this week are as follows: E. H. Coffield, Lester Glass and Dr. E. R. Zellner.

DIRTY JOBS—There are dirty jobs, dull jobs, devastating jobs, but I think there can be few, even of these, that do not give some return outside of the pay envelope. And the man who doesn't find the job too dull or too devastating isn't likely to be held to it very long. Let us reflect back to some of the various jobs we have been appointed to do as committeemen,—what about getting new members? We have not heard any comments on the article pertaining to the suggestive membership drive in our February 15th, issue.

"It's not too soon to plan for June."

No doubt you want to co-operate to make the 1939 Rotary Convention at Cleveland the most successful convention Rotary has ever held. Rotary International's 30th Annual convention, June 19 to 23, 1939, Cleveland, Ohio.

Last Wednesday President Dr. C. G. Swift appointed the following for the "On to Houston" committee, for the District Conference to be held in Houston, Texas, on the 16th, 17th and 18th of April: J. C. Andres, chairman, S. Kestenbaum. Every Rotarian should want to go to this district Conference, it is true, most of the members are not in the position to leave their business or profession at will, yet, I believe there are some members whose capacity in their business or profession permits them to take this opportunity to avail themselves in Rotary service. Plan to take an early vacation, attend the District Conference, not only an enjoyable but a profitable vacation. The above mentioned committee would hate to have to go to Houston by themselves, and we do not like to appoint volunteers.

"DON'T CONCEAL YOUR IDEAS"
Years ago someone conceived the idea of placing an eraser on the end of a pencil and made a fortune. Someone stuck a piece of steel in a wooden stock, split the free end of the steel and made goose-quill pens obsolete. A young man saw a cat pulling feathers from chickens by reaching its paw through the slats of a crate and from this observation the idea of a cotton gin was born. Which brings us to the point, "Everything begins with an Idea." So don't be afraid to bring your Ideas before the Rotary Club, who knows but what your Ideas won't be the making of a successful Rotary Club in Cameron.

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

THE NEW Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then, the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

There's ONLY ONE

GREAT WALL OF CHINA

Spanning over 2,550 miles of rugged mountain country, the Great Wall was built of stone, brick and sun-dried bricks by hand labor under the Emperor Shih Huang-ti in the third century B. C. to fortify the whole northern frontier of China. It is studied by over 25,000 watch towers. Considering its size, durability and the age in which it was built, it is hailed as the greatest engineering achievement of all time and as, indeed, one of the seven wonders of the world.

No other beer duplicates the Flavor, Body and Quality that make PEARL Famous!

Behind every great engineering achievement lie the skill and talent of its creators, which make it impossible to duplicate. Behind every bottle of PEARL Beer lie the matchless skill and talent born only of 53 years' expert brewing experience. Because of PEARL'S incomparable flavor, its robust, tingling tang; because it is a delicious, golden brew, impossible to duplicate, more and more taste-wise Texans daily are saying, "Bottle of PEARL, please!" The reason is in the bottle!

any attempt to confiscate its properties, a majority of the council including Mayor Smith realized that the cause was lost.

When the Council met on Tuesday evening to consider final action in the matter, F. S. Lesovsky, local insurance agent, made an appeal to the Council to proceed in the courts to obtain possession of the property. He said the people had given the "go ahead" signal on every occasion when the plan was voted upon. To this statement Mayor Smith replied, the people had not authorized the Council to proceed with a law suit, the outcome of which could not be determined and might involve the city in heavy financial loss.

Alderman August Horstmann, ardent advocate of public ownership of utilities, who has steadfastly supported Mayor Smith in his long campaign, made a motion that the City Council proceed with litigation and named a Dallas law firm to employ. Alderman Sam McDermott succeeded in getting Mr. Horstmann to strike from his motion the reference to the Dallas law firm, his motive being that if the motion passed the city could employ local attorneys.

Alderman E. O. Schiller who also has supported Mayor Smith and his plans to own the utilities in Cameron, made the second to Mr. Horstmann's motion. Mayor Smith expressed his opposition to proceeding with litigation and when the motion was put to a vote, the result was as follows: For filing suit to obtain possession of the water company's properties, August Horstmann and E. O. Schiller; against entering suit for possession of the properties, Sam McDermott, Roy Griffith and Bob Terry. The result having been tabulated, Mayor Smith announced the results and thus ended the ten year long battle for entry into the public utility field.

Shortly after the result of the vote was announced, Luther Raley, representing the water company headquarters at Clifton, appeared before the Council and offered to reimburse the city in the sum of approximately $2,000 representing expenses incurred by the city during recent months in connection with purchase plans. Mr. Raley did not know the Council had voted not to enter suit. He had previously asked the Council and on Tuesday night again asked the Council not to enter suit against the company, that its properties are not for sale and that litigation would only result in expense to both the city and the water company and nothing could be accomplished thereby. The offer to reimburse the city its expenses was a gesture of generosity on the part of the company and was accepted by the city. A resolution was passed accepting the offer as submitted by Mr. Raley and the same was made of record in the minutes of the meeting. The total sum paid by the water company was represented by several checks enumerating as many items as were involved in the summary of costs.

Aldermen Horstmann and Schiller voted against acceptance of the money tendered by the water company and were critical toward the action of the Council in declining to proceed with the litigation.

Jack Benny

the daughter of a Texas oil tycoon, Miss Bennett, whom he meets at a sidewalk cafe and invites to join his gang, thinking her as broke as himself.

The story gallops forward with the arrival of Miss Bennett's father, a fun-loving old codger, played by Charley Grapewin, who also joins the crew as a lark, without revealing his wealth.

Taking Miss Bennett and Graywin in tow, Benny goes through one hilarious adventure after another, including flights from irate hotel-keepers across Paris roofs, nights spent "camping out" in the Exposition halls, a flirtation with an old dray horse who remembers him from the old prairies and finally the theft of one of France's most valuable art treasures, inadvertently, of course.

As a word of reassurance to Benny radio fans, Jack does make love to Miss Bennett by hanging out of a hotel window upside down. In fact, this is the general tone of their romance throughout the picture, which winds up with Jack forced to choose between a hoover's freedom and a millionaire's life of ease. You guess which he chooses!

Cameron Machine Shop today announced receipt of an entirely new John Deere tractor, a small machine built for the use of farmers who find large tractors too expensive for their use. This new tractor is the lowest priced tractor ever built and has created a sensation throughout the farm areas of the United States. The tractor is now on display in the show rooms of the Cameron Machine Shop and farmers this week end will be interested in seeing the new unit.

An important improvement in the cafe service of Cameron was noted this week when Fred Jackson, owner of the Blue Bonnet, completed a new dining room. The cafe kitchen was moved and a space some 20 by 30 feet has been made into a modern dining room. The interior is being finished in ivory with modernistic ceiling and upper walls. Mr. Jackson said this new room would accommodate the Lions Club and will be used for private parties.

Cheeves Bros. store announces its first of the month dollar day for Monday, March 6. These events always produce a large number of bargains and the sale this month is no exception to that rule. Stocks are being cleared out for the receipt of spring merchandise.

Jim Sampson with his Hollywood Heights is setting the pace for residential developments in the city of Cameron. These Heights are located on North Houston. Already a number of new homes are being built. The lots overlook a large section of the city and are adjacent to highway 77 entering Cameron. Mr. Sampson, a large property owner, has given Cameron some of its most modern homes during the past ten years.

A new schedule of advertising reached the Herald this week from the Pitluk Agency of San Antonio to be run over a period of several months for Grady Little, local distributor of Pearl beer. These advertisements are unique because they are historic in the material and photographic work. The advertisement being run this week features the Chinese Wall. Many other historic and educational pictures will appear in the advertisements which run through the month of August. Pearl beer has a large distribution in this territory.

A significant development of the week along Commercial Row was the distribution of circulars purchased in large quantities. These circulars are

Methodist Church Sends 42 to Marlin Conference

A total of forty-two, thirty-six young, and eight adults from the Cameron Methodist church attended the District Crusade Rally for young people at Marlin Tuesday night.

There were 449 young people and 126 adults present at the meeting. Rev. Aln Reed of Minerva, temporary Director of Young People's Work in the Marlin District, was in charge of the meeting. James E. Ferguson Jr., of Southwestern University spoke on the plans of the Crusade.

Inspirational addresses were given by Dr. Dawson Bryan, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, Houston, and Dr. J. Walter Mills, pastor Marvin Methodist church, Tyler. Nine other rallies like the Marlin meeting are being held in the Texas conference with perhaps one hundred such meeting being held throughout the state.

The interest and enthusiasm as thus shown on the part of thousands of young people certainly means a new and better day for Christianity and for our nation as a whole.
